The Germans to Act with the Versailles Troops

PARIS May 18 —Marshal McMahon has called upon the Germans to aid him and German engineers are now throwing a bridge across the Seine to facilitate the passage of the Versailles and German armies A decisive attack will come from the east, and the Germans and French will act together

The Treaty with Germany

VERSAILLES, May 18, Evening —The Assembly has adopted the entire treaty signed at Frankfort between France and Germany Gen Chanzy objected to the proposed territorial change but was answered by Thiers and Gen Ducrot who insisted upon the advantage of retaining and strengthening Belfor

The British Parliament.

LONDON May 18 —In the House of Commons this evening a motion exempting exchange of commissions from the operations of the army regulation bill which extinguished the purchase system was lost by forty eight majority

LONDON May 18 —In the House of Commons this evening Disraeli severely criticised the budget lately submitted by Lowe, Chancellor of the Exchequer reviewing the successive stages of progress which it had passed its introduction, reconsideration and subsequent revision He objected especially to the provision relating to income tax and to customs, saying that it was now proposed to meet the increased deficiency in the revenue, which would certainly be increased, by the abolition of the purchase of army commissions and by other and equally undesirable means Pending the treaty for the adjustment of the American question, it would also require increased expenditure means for which should all come from one direct taxation of the people

Lowe, Chancellor of the Exchequer, said the Government shunned addition to income tax because it was oppressing the lower and middle classes, and that they must look elsewhere for revenue

Charles Nudgate, member for North Warwickshire, commended the wise financial policy of America to the study of the Government

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18 —The statement and bill of exceptions on application of Mrs Fair for a new trial filed, sets forth the following grounds That the jury received evidence out of Court other than that resulting from a view as provided by law that the jury separated without leave of Court, and were guilty of misconduct, tending to prevent a fair and due consideration of the case, that the verdict was decided by means other than a fair expression of opinion on the part of the jurors, the Court misdirected the jury in the matters of law and its instructions and charges, that it erred in refusing to give instructions asked on the part of the defendant that the Court erred in its decision upon questions of law which arose upon and during the course of the trial, that the verdict is contrary to law and evidence, that the minds of the jury were prejudiced and biased against the defendant by means of the fine of $250 imposed upon her in their presence and hearing newly discovered evidence material to the defendant, and which she could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced on the trial, that some of said jurors had expressed an unqualified opinion as to the guilt of the defendant which was unknown to defendant at the time they were accepted and sworn on said trial The new evidence is set forth on affidavit of Mrs Mary G Smith, who swears that previous to Mrs Fair's making the acquaintance of Crittenden her character was good and details the circumstances of her carrying a letter from Crittenden to Mrs Fair

The undoubted success of the Suez Canal has served to make the world dissatisfied with all the existing channels of commerce which are out of a straight line It has acted as the spur to our government to connect the Pacific and Atlantic oceans by means of a ship canal across the Isthmus of Darien which, it is to be hoped will be commenced so soon as practicable after the surveying party now on the ground shall have decided upon a route Other ship canal projects have been inspired by success of the Suez Canal One that may be prominently mentioned is the opening of a continuous waterway from the Gulf of Lyons to the Bay of Biscay —a distance of 225 miles Another enterprise of similar nature is worthy of reference It is the severance of the Isthmus of Corinth between the gulfs of Ægina and Lepanto to open a more direct route for the trade of the Black Sea Turkey, Asia Minor and the Grecian Archipelago with the Mediterranean coast and southern Europe as well as for that portion of it seeking other countries through the Straits of Gibraltar shortening the distance to these points by several hundred miles. There is also another work of this kind spoken of that being to connect the Baltic Sea with the German Ocean with the view of escaping the risk of disaster attending the passage of vessels through the Skager Rack and Cattegat —N Y Herald

General O O Howard has forwarded a letter to the Secretary of War concerning the state of affairs in Mississippi He gives a long list of outrages on freedmen and others, and states that his information is from sources which he deems entirely trustworthy.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE.

State of Affairs in Paris.

NEW YORK, May 19 —A special from Paris last evening says that all traffic on the bridges has been stopped, and a panic among the troops is feared The Committee of Safety officially declare that the explosion was the work of agents of the Versailles Government

A strange story is circulated to the effect that Capt de Bain found in the pockets of the wife of a gen d'arme a plan of the cartridge factory and a plan of Paris prepared by Trochu Four persons have been arrested on suspicion

Deserters from the army of Versailles have been removed to the interior of the city from the Ecole Militaire where they have been confined

The mangled remains of the victims of the explosion were exhibited yesterday at the Church of St Pierre, outside of the railings The number of persons killed by the explosion was less than was expected The workmen left the building fifteen minutes before the catastrophe took place

M Gabon, a member of the Committee of Public Safety, has joined the Francs Tireurs who are menacing and discontented Should they openly declare against the Commune they will give considerable trouble, as they are well armed and organized

A serious attack upon the ramparts of Paris is imminent There are now forty thousand Versailles troops in the Bois de Boulogne, pushing forward the parallels with great vigor

LONDON May 19 —It is reported the Versaillists occupy Clichy There was a sharp engagement at Asnieres It is rumored the Versaillists attempted to storm the Dauphine gate and were repulsed

The Paris journals say that Brogellie replaces Favre after the ratification of the peace treaty

PARIS, May 18 —The Versaillists attacked Montrouge, but reinforcements arrived and the attack was repulsed Several cannon were captured The attack on the village of Vanvres was also repulsed The Versaillists have been beaten at Bois de Boulogne, before Maillot Gate The latter has been destroyed The Versailles flag floats from Fort Vanvres

The Safety Committee have decreed the suppression of Revue Deux Mondes, Avenir National Patrie La Commune Justice, and five others No new papers are to be started until the war is over Writers who sign articles attacking the Government are punishable by martial law, and officers hesitating to obey are guilty of treason It is reported that the committee have determined to raze rather than surrender the city.

Other European News

LONDON, May 19 —Fifty thousand Turkish troops are concentrated at Shumla

BERLIN May 19 —Bismarck goes to Frankfort to meet Favre and Pouyer, to exchange ratifications

WASHINGTON CITY

Proceedings in the Senate

WASHINGTON, May 19 —In the Senate to-day only twenty four members were present Sumner said the resolutions adopted yesterday in open Senate advertised to the world that the Senate possessed an official copy of the treaty

Harlan remarked it had been stated in debate that certain papers had been privately communicated to a limited number of Senators, and that the text of these papers was similar to papers printed in confidence for the Senate It had been stated that the Assistant Secretary of State had informed the Select Committee of the exact number of copies printed by the Department of State, and was able to account for the disposition of each It was also said by members of the Committee of Investigation that if they were permitted to proceed in the line they had adopted the disclosure of the document would be traced to certain members of the Senate He supposed that every one knew that the Committee on Foreign Affairs were on confidential terms with the State Department, and that if any Senators had copies the members of that Committee were furnished with them They all concurred with him in opinion that it would be proper to call each Senator who was supposed to have had an advance copy of this paper that he might be examined before the committee He made the suggestion in order to relieve the delicacy of any Senator in the matter Members of the committee as far as he had conferred with them, regarded this as a thing proper to be done

Morrill, of Maine, suggested that there were several other copies furnished outside of those in the hands of the members of the Committee on Foreign Relations Therefore the examination should be extended to all Senators who had obtained advance copies

Senator Fenton of New York said he had been threatened with the responsibility by Senators Conklin and Carpenter He stated that he was not furnished with a copy of the treaty till ten hours after it appeared in the Tribune

Morton also made a similar statement and flatly denied being connected with the violation of secrecy

Trumbull, as a member of the Committee of Investigation, reported that thus far they had obtained no information pointing to or indicating that any Senator had furnished a copy of the treaty Sumner confirmed this

EASTERN STATES

Vallandigham Accepts the Situation

DAYTON, O, May 18 —The Montgomery County Democratic Convention met to day for the appointment of delegates to the State Convention A long series of resolutions were submitted by Vallandigham A new platform for the Democratic party is proposed The main features, contained in the second and third resolutions, are as follows

Second—Waiving all differences of opinion and the extraordinary means by which they were brought about, we accept the natural results of the war so far as waged for the ostensible purpose of maintaining the Union and constitutional rights and powers of the Federal Government, including the Amendments de facto, to the Constitution recently declared adopted, as a settlement in the face of the issues of the war, inasmuch as the same are no longer issues before the country, burying out of sight all that is of the past, the right of secession, slavery, inequality before law, political inequality, complete representation within and union restored to all the States,—waiving all questions as to the means by which this is accomplished We demand that the vital and long established rule of strict construction as proclaimed by the Democratic fathers accepted by statesmen of all parties previous to the war and embodied in the tenth amendment to the Constitution as it is, including the three recent amendments referred to and insist that these amendments shall not be held to have in any respect altered or modified the original theory or character of the Federal Government as designed and taught by its founders and repeatedly in early times, in later times and in all times affirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States, but only to have enlarged powers delegated to it to that effect and no more to have abridged the reserved rights of States and as thus construed, according to ancient and well established rules, the Democratic party pledges itself to the full, faithful and absolute execution and enforcement of the Constitution as it now is, so as to secure the equal rights of all persons under it, without distinction of race, color or condition

Other resolutions favor general amnesty, the early payment of the public debt, civil reform speedy return to specie payments, opposition to further grants of public lands the scheme for the annexation of San Domingo, and condemning in unqualified terms the Ku Klux bill passed at the last session of Congress as unconstitutional and subversive of the rights of the people of States

Vallandigham supported the resolutions in a strong speech, and they were unanimously adopted

Theophile Gautier the renowned literary annual fancier had at the beginning of the siege of Paris 160 cats, and at the capitulation discovered that his feline stock had been reduced to nine, owing to the roving habits which made them a prey to the hungry population Even of the nine, four had their tails shot away. Gautier is sorely troubled over his losses, as his love of cats, he says, passes the love of woman

CURRENT NOTES

The Chicago Tribune says that it entertains no doubt that had Gen Sherman's terms with Johnston been carried out and the States readmitted with their rebel organizations, and on the basis of their white vote only, slavery would have been restored and the elements of disunion between the South and North would have been stronger than ever

The coming political campaign in Ohio is to be an eventful and important one Hamilton county will be the chief battle ground, as which ever party carries that will probably control the Legislature and elect its candidate for Senator in place of Mr Sherman The Democratic contest for the nomination for Governor now seems to be between Ewing and McCook, the chances favoring McCook, with Vallandigham in the back ground for Senator The Republicans entertain no doubt of success

An officer on board the U. S steamer Guerriere writing from Tripoli, April 9th, gives the following interesting reminiscence of Commodore Decatur This morning we took on board an anchor of the old Philadelphia which had been here ever since Decatur burned that ship in 1804 It was the Captain's (Thomas H Stevens) own idea to bring it home and the Pacha very willingly gave his consent to its removal. It is very large and heavy, and was with difficulty gotten off to the ship though it will be quite a curiosity and well worth the trouble of moving it when it gets home

The latest dispatches from the Darien Surveying Expedition represent the survey of the canal route from Cupica Bay to the Atrato, by way of Napipi river, as complete The distance, pursuing the bends of the river, is sixty nine and a half miles, on a straight line it is only twenty miles The Napipi river flows through a mountainous country for about thirteen miles from the foot of the divide and is supplied from the Doguado river as a tributary. It is proposed to make thirteen locks from the latter, eighteen miles from the Atrato, to the divide, then to tunnel through and descend to the Pacific by nine locks The survey occupied twenty-seven days, great hardships being experienced.

Ben Butler's Success as a Divorce Lawyer

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald writes as follows

Some time ago Mr Pomeroy, wife of the somewhat famous "Brick" Pomeroy, applied to Ben Butler to act as her counsel in securing a divorce from her husband Butler, of course, consented As soon as Brick came to know that Butler had been employed in the case, he directed his lawyer to compromise the case by offering to pay Mrs Pomeroy $20,000 and $600 a year Upon being informed of this Butler addressed the following letter to a gentleman in New York, employed as associate counsel for Mrs. Pomeroy:

WASHINGTON, April 16th, 1871

MY DEAR SIR I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of April 15th 1871, informing me of your connection with the case of M M Pomeroy and his wife, applicant for divorce Mrs Pomeroy applied to me in a very lady-like and proper note stating that she desired to engage my service as counsel, and I saw no objection to taking a retainer in the case I did not inform her that I should do it gratuitously, but I undoubtedly should have done so except that I could have compelled Pomeroy to pay my fee I am glad to be informed that, the fact of my employment having become known to her husband, he has concluded to make a settlement with her, giving her $20,000 in cash, as you inform me, and paying $600 a year toward the education of their child It is certainly very agreeable to know that I have been able to make the man disgorge the money he has made out of me in favor of a woman whom he has injured and abused, and who I am informed, is an estimable lady By abuse of me and pandering to the worst passions and credulities of his readers he has been able to sell his paper as to make a living for himself and even a competence, as I understand Now, in justice he should pay me a portion of that and if my employment by his wife as her counsel has caused him to take part of that which belongs to me and provide for her sustenance I shall have the satisfaction of knowing that, while he has injured and abused me, I am in fact supporting his family I have done some charitable acts in my life of which I have no disposition to boast, but none upon which I more pride myself than of being the benefactor and supporter of the family of "Brick" Pomeroy I may never need to use the information which you gave me, but if I do you may be sure that I never bring my informant into trouble I do not mark this letter either private or confidential I am, very respectfully, yours, B F BUTLER

Mrs. Fair in Prison

The San Francisco Bulletin has this

The cell in which Mrs Fair is confined has been whitened and furnished so that it is more cheerful and comfortable then when she was first placed there A bureau and fixed mirror, a stand and three chairs have been added and some rugs have been laid on the stone floor Still, the prisoner complains of the draft through the window, and when a reporter of the Bulletin visited her to day, he found the prisoner shivering with cold Mr Kelley, the jailor, says that cell is the best one in the prison It is large and would be comfortable as a cell can be, were it not for the draft through what is at once a ventilator and a window When Mrs Fair was first put in the cell persons who visited her observed that the ceiling was completely covered over with large and small wood cuts taken out of Police Gazettes, etc, and pasted to the solid masonry. Immediately over the head of her bed, where she could not look up without seeing it was a picture representing the hanging of a woman Some prisoner had relieved the monotony of his days, and gratified his morbid taste by covering the ceiling with these atrocious cuts The jailor has very properly caused every one of them to be removed

In conversation with Mrs Fair, the absorbing themes are the recent trial and the present condition and future prospects of her little child The latter visits her mother every morning and never fails to carry some new or fresh fruit or something which she fancies will please her To day, when the door was opened to admit her she exclaimed, "Mamma here comes your little sunlight"

Mrs Fair reads little from either books or newspapers and keeps her bed most of the time Her mother and physician visits her daily and other visitors are admitted freely who have the proper permits from Sheriff White

Returns of the municipal elections in Indiana show that a considerable change of sentiment has taken place since the State election of last fall The Republicans carry Terre Haute Greencastle and Shelbyville heretofore strongly Democratic, by handsome majorities The Democratic success in Indiana last fall was the result of apathy and sectional differences on the part of the Republicans The State is a close one but when a full vote is polled, is good for a Republican majority The Republicans have, this spring, been able to carry cities which were counted Democratic, owing to the feeling which is fast obtaining that the country is safe only in the hands of the Republican Party The people know that since the inauguration of President Grant taxes have been reduced, the revenue honestly collected and disbursed, and that the country has made immense strides in a career of prosperity and peace They have, therefore come to the conclusion that it is better to trust the party of progress and deeds than that of retrogression and promise.

A Statement Corrected.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

THE DAILY OREGONIAN of 12th inst, on first page, contains a third of a column article, dated New York, April 19th clipped probably from a New York paper or telegram, purporting to give a synopsis from the New York Tribune of the report of a committee of the Massachusetts Legislature on resolutions submitted to it concerning the action of Senator Sumner on the Santo Domingo question The article is headed, "Massachusetts Repudiates Sumner"

The whole article is very much muddled, and was intended I think, and in fact is likely to convey very [illegible] impressions It is in part the co[illegible] statement of the Tribune's synopsis [illegible] erroneous It is I enclose [illegible] what the Tribune said [illegible] occasion to wit

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 20, 1871.

Pretended Acquiescence.

Only those who are under suspicion and have a cloud resting on their characters feel the necessity of declaring themselves not guilty. The Presidential campaign is rapidly approaching and the Democratic party is making a desperate effort to cause the country to believe that it no longer entertains revolutionary and dangerous designs. Denials and disclaimers are coming in from all sides. That party in 1868 avowed its revolutionary purpose and was signally defeated. Now it wants to conceal its revolutionary purpose in the hope to win. Vallandigham and his friends declare that they do not design to overthrow the constitutional amendments or reverse any of the results of the war. They announce their acceptance of reconstruction and of negro suffrage, and acknowledge the validity of the national debt. Now if they are undeniably sound on these questions and fit to be trusted with the affairs of the country; if they really mean to employ measures of peace and safety, why should they raise suspicions to the contrary by these disclaimers of revolutionary intent? What is the necessity for such denials, except that the whole country knows that the Democratic party does mean violence and revolution, and is not fit to be trusted? By the very means they employ to disarm suspicion they will awaken the fear of the country as to their designs.

Everybody knows that this so-called acquiescence is hollow pretense. "We will give the amendments a fair trial," says the Savannah Republican (Dem.), "leaving the future to determine whether a continuance is best." The St. Louis Times [illegible] to endure "the consequences even of that part of the Radical work of reconstruction which never was fairly ratified by the people." The Norfolk [illegible] says the people will do as the Congressional address says, "though they have their own individual opinions about the amendments." "If the Democracy of the North," says the Selma (Ala.) Times, "are satisfied that the fifteenth amendment for the present [illegible] be acquiesced in, and not be disturbed, so be it. For the success of the Democracy in 1872 is of vastly more importance to us than the repeal of the amendments." Can anything, as the Washington [illegible] aptly inquires, more completely manifest at once the hollow pretense of acquiescence and the resolute purpose of future reversal?

Who does not know that the real and ill-concealed purposes of a majority of Democrats are those of bitter hatred of and hostility to the measures in which some of them are pretending to acquiesce, in hope of gaining power.

Overland by way of Idaho.

Cheap fare to and from Oregon have long been a great want of our State. Our distance from the centers of population and the high cost of travel have operated against us, and while other states as Minnesota and Kansas, by reason of the facility with which they could be reached, have filled up with a population of hundreds of thousands, the increase in Oregon has been slow. But now with quicker means of travel we have also a reduction of fares both by steamer route from San Francisco and by the route from the East through Idaho. This reduction comes opportunely. Now is the time for it to be most useful to the State.

Passengers from Portland can now go through to Chicago by the Columbia river and Idaho route in nine days, and the fares have been reduced to moderate figures. We desire to call attention to the advertisement of this route, whereby it will be seen that a cheap and reliable line of travel to and fro between Oregon and the East, through Idaho, is fairly in operation. It may be expected that a large number of people will enter Oregon by this route during the present year. Idaho papers recently announced that merchants in that Territory were now receiving supplies of goods at cheaper rates by way of the Columbia river than by the railroads, and that the trade between that Territory and Portland seemed in a fair way to be re-established. A cheap, expeditious and reliable line of travel on the route will do much to restore the trade, and be greatly beneficial to Portland and to Oregon.

Another volume has just been added to the many which have been written on the mystery of Junius. This new book is written by an Englishman named Twistleton, and according to the Quarterly Review he demonstrates beyond any question that Junius was none other than the man to whom the weight of testimony has long pointed, viz.: Sir Philip Francis. The Quarterly congratulates Mr. Twistleton on having produced a book which settles once for all the long disputed controversy respecting the authorship of the Junius letters. The positive proof which has heretofore been lacking is said to be furnished in this book which is exciting much attention among literary men. It is now conceded in England that the identity of Junius is established beyond the possibility of further [illegible] and [illegible] nominis umbra is no [illegible] appropriate motto.

[illegible] Sherman's reported speech at [illegible] which has given Democrats and [illegible] over the country so much comfort [illegible] first printed at Washington, the [illegible] of that city remarked: "We do not believe that General Sherman said any such thing because only a short time since we heard him express in very strong terms exactly the contrary opinion." The Chronicle was right in disbelieving it, as Gen. Sherman a few days afterwards denied that he had said anything like what was imputed to him. The false story was started by the Avalanche, a Ku-Klux paper published at Memphis.

Alluding to the recent attempt of Chief Justice Chase to overthrow the legal tender act, Senator Anthony of Rhode Island, in the Providence Journal recalls the fact that the act was urged through Congress largely, if not mainly, by the influence of Mr. Chase, then Secretary of the Treasury, who insisted that it was essential to the prosecution of the war and the preservation of the Government. A man when he gets to bidding for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency often does strange things.

A contemporary observes: "The taxes in South Carolina are said by the Democracy to have more than trebled since 1861. This is one of the penalties for indulging in the expensive luxury of treason and rebellion, and we would advise the taxpayers to ponder this question. If one Democratic rebellion cost so heavily, what will be the expense of the second, which they are now striving to bring about in order to regain their lost power?"

OREGON.

The Beaver Hosier Company, recently organized at Jefferson, have disposed of 75 schares of their stock.

An Albany paper says that a wool buyer at that place has bargained for wool, at thirty-five cents and the rise till July. Sellers certainly couldn't ask for a better show.

The Sacramento Reporter, of Saturday last, says that a German, who is agent for a colony of 300 families, passed through that city to look for a place for settlement in Oregon.

At the public sale on Tuesday at the new town of Halsey, on the line of the O. & C. railroad, 17 miles from Albany, lots rated at from $50 to $15 each, as to location, we are informed.

From the Albany Register: On Thursday last three brothers, named Dawson, were engaged in cutting timber, near or on the Fisher place, some four or five miles from this city. A large tree, in the act of falling, struck a dead stub, which, in turn, also fell, and in falling struck Newton Dawson on the head, killing him almost instantly. Deceased was the youngest of the three brothers, probably some seventeen or eighteen years of age. The funeral services were announced for three o'clock yesterday afternoon, in this city. Deceased bore a good reputation, and the family and friends have the sincere sympathy of the community in the terrible calamity which has deprived them of a near and dear friend.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Seattle Coal Company are now taking out of their mine about 35 tons of coal per ton.

A few days ago a man named H. J. Shurtleff was killed near Seattle by a falling tree. He had just cut the tree, which lodged and ran back over the stump and struck him a fatal blow in the left side.

The Walla Walla Statesman learns that General Tilton has his report on the survey of a route for a railroad to the Columbia river completed, and that the same will be submitted to the Directors of the Company at a meeting to be held at once.

T. G. Murphy has his valedictory in the last issue of the Alaska Times. He informs the public that he has sold out, not because it didn't pay, but because he is engaged on a book containing a history of Alaska, and must go east to superintend the publication thereof.

Divorce Made Difficult.

The Walla Walla Statesman of the 16th has the following article:

For the last two terms the greater portion of the time of the District Court has been taken up with divorce suits; to such an extent has this grown that on Friday, Judge Kennedy very forcibly and clearly gave his opinion of the corrupting and demoralizing effect these divorce suits are having on the community. He intimated that, hereafter, all applications for divorce would be subjected to a most searching investigation, and none granted upon flimsy and trivial pretexts. It seems that parties residing in Oregon and Idaho have been in the habit of coming here, and after residing long enough to fulfill the requirements of law, file their application for divorce, and, in some out of the way manner attempt to serve notice on the defendant, which of course he or she never sees. The case is called in court, and the defendant not answering, the divorce is "granted by default." A number of cases have transpired in which the defendant has remained in ignorance of the divorce having been granted for a period of several months, and then only learning of it by the merest accident. Proceedings of this character Judge Kennedy proposes to put a stop to; and, in doing so, he will receive the thanks of the better portion of our citizens, who are prepared to aid him in his war upon vice and immorality with all their power and influence.

According to the annual report of Charles S. Capp, manager of the Immigrant Union of California, the total receipts of the organization for the past year were $14,570 97, and the expenditures $14,420 50. The most of the funds expended were employed in distributing printed information and assisting immigrants to this coast.

The increase of the debt of New York City in three years has been $31,352,000. The party in power there is the one that denounces "Radical extravagance at Washington!"

The Second Quarter of Lessons in Cla[sses] commences with the present week. It affords us great pleasure to acknowledge the substantial support of so large a number of patrons. We take pride in subjoining the following testimonial from one of the ablest educators in America, together with that of the entire corps of Normal Teachers with whom we had the great honor to labor.

STATE OF MINNESOTA, FIRST STATE NORMAL SCHOOL,
WINONA, April 18, 1871.

It affords me great pleasure to bear testimony to the high personal and professional qualities of Professor J. B. McGibeny, who for two years presided with entire acceptance over the Department of Vocal and Physical Culture in this Institution. To a thorough knowledge of the philosophy of Calisthenics and Vocal training possessed by but few, he superadds an enthusiastic devotion to his profession, and an industry surpassed by none. With an experience of more than a quarter of a century in the Normal Schools of this country, in whose courses of study Vocal Music has occupied a prominent position, I do not hesitate to say that I have never met with the peer of Professor McGibeny as an instructor in this department.

I commend him and his excellent wife, who also possesses rare powers as a teacher and musician, to the confidence of all who can appreciate the value of a true and rational mode of culture for the children and youth of our country. WM. F. PHELPS, Principal.

I heartily concur in the above.
C. C. CURTISS, Dep't of Accounts.

The undersigned Teachers in the First State Normal School of Minnesota, also concur in the foregoing testimonial of Professor Phelps.

MARRIED WITHOUT CONSENT.—Yesterday one of the Justices of the Peace was called upon in to perform the ceremony of marriage for a man and woman who had been for several years legally married. The case was a somewhat singular one. The man and woman were married years ago in Douglas county, but the man and his mother-in-law did not get along very well, she made it hot for him. After awhile the mother in law succeeded in persuading the wife to commence proceedings for a divorce, at At the trial the husband put in an and the suit was compromised, and as agreed, an end made of it. Subsequently the man came to the Wallamet valley and a suit for divorce at Eugene City. the wife appeared; this suit also was and the husband and wife came to to get away from the "old woman," to have been at the bottom of all the Yesterday, or the day before, they received a dispatch stating that the wife had just been divorced by a decree of the Circuit Court at This news fell like a bombshell in the couple, and as nothing could be done except to repair damages, the Justice was called in and the twain were again made one flesh, despite the tions of the "old woman" and the EXCURSION.—A party of seventeen persons, most of them lately from the East, made an excursion up the Columbia river on Wednesday, returning Thursday evening. They went to the Dalles by steamer, and thence by railroad train to Celilo. There were of the party Rev. Dr. Atwood and family, and two brothers each with Mr. O. S. Phelps, Mrs. Dickersons, Mr. and wife, Mr. Loss, and several others whose names we do not remember. The were delighted with the trip and the While at the Dalles Rev. Mr. Condon to those of the party who are soon to the East, many specimens of the geology of Oregon.

THE NEW TOWN OF HALSEY.—A day or two Kilbourn sold at auction for the proprietors about fifty lots in the town of Halsey, seventeen miles south of Albany, on the Railroad. The lots brought from $50 to Mr. Halsey designated and donated to the several churches which have tion in the State, deeds for which whenever the proper church trustees apply. Rev. J. H. Vincent and Phillips each obtained a lot. Most money was paid down and the ted on the spot. Many of the buyers going to build immediately.

"SWEET SINGERS."—The East Portland Era has the following paragraph: "At the meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, held last at the M. E. Church, the talented Mr. Phillips, caused a number of his valuable books to be placed in the seats for the tion of the audience. The selling price books was 75 cents, and 80 of them were from the church by persons in the congregation, causing a loss to Mr. Phillips of $60." the same indicates an exalted condition of public mind on the subject of "sweet singing" and that Portland will soon have enough "sweet singers" of her own.

GRAND LODGE I. O. O. F.

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL SESSION.

FOURTH DAY—FRIDAY, MAY 19.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to draft resolutions, expressing the sense of this Grand Lodge, on the death of Bro. W. D. Vantine, D. D. G. M. of District No. 6, I. T. Adopted.

The W. G. Master appointed as such committee, Bros. Crawford, Backenstc, Sols, Wulff and Marx.

Committee on Finance reported that they had examined the reports of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer and found them correct. The report was adopted.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Question 23—If the by-laws provide the penalty of expulsion for an offense, and upon a vote being taken, two-thirds of the ballots are not in favor of the expulsion, what course shall the Lodge then pursue?

Answer—If the constitution provides a specific penalty the Noble Grand must enforce it. Adopted.

Question 24—Has a complaint against a brother, when handed to the Noble Grand and read in open Lodge, to be placed upon the minutes in full, stating the matters of the complaint?

Answer—The complaint handed to the N. G. should not be read to the Lodge. Adopted.

Question No 28, was reported back from the Committee on Laws of Subordinates with a statement that, the Committee was not able to find in the laws any penalty for neglect or failure by a lodge Secretary to forward to the Grand Secretary all the papers in case of an appeal—and upon the recommendation of the Committee the question was referred to the Legislative Committee with instructions to report suitable legislation thereon.

Subsequently the Legislative Committee reported upon the above matter as follows:

The Legislative Committee to whom was referred Question 28, for Legislative action, report no legislation necessary in such cases, and refer to Section 11, Article 7, Constitution of Subordinates, and also to the obligation of that officer, and would answer that a Secretary for such neglect, should be proceeded against for conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, and the consequences of such conviction constitutes the penalty. Adopted.

An invitation to visit Hassalo Lodge this evening was received and accepted.

ELECTION OF GRAND LODGE OFFICERS.

The Grand Lodge then proceeded to the election of Grand officers for the ensuing year, with the following result:

W. G. Master—E. L. Bristow, of No. 9.

A. J. Marshall—R. W. Grand Warden.
C. N. Terry—R. W. Grand Secretary.

E. D. Towle—R. W. Grand Representative.

The officers were duly installed and the following appointive officers were appointed by the W. G. Master:

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE, ETC.

The committee appointed to report resolutions respecting the death of Bro. W. D. Vantine, reported resolutions of about the form and substance usual in such cases. The resolutions were adopted.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Question 26—A member having properly received the P. W. of the current term makes application to visit a lodge in his own jurisdiction, whose officers have not received the P. W. of the current term—how is he to be admitted into the Lodge room?

Answer—By the old P. W. Adopted.

Question 29—Have Lodges the right to appear in full regalia on the 26th of April without a dispensation guaranteed them, of which the Lodge has notice?

Answer—A Lodge has no right to appear on such occasion without dispensation. Adopted.

Question 30—Has a Recording Secretary the right to make a sketch of the minutes of his Lodge on a slip of paper then make them in a blotter for action, and then, after correction (if any) and approval, record them in the proper Book of Records?

Answer—The minutes must be read from the record book. Any corrections or alterations made in the minutes of the previous meeting, should be recorded in the minutes of the succeeding meeting. No erasure or interlineations should be allowed in the record book. R. S. may make rough sketches of minutes on paper, but should immediately copy into blotter or record book. Adopted.

Question 31—Is it the duty of the junior P. G., during his term of office, to occupy the chair and wear the jewel of that officer while present in his lodge.

Answer—Yes. Adopted.

AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION.

Bro. A. L. Stinson offered the following as an amendment to the Constitution:

"Strike out the word 'three' in sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, and insert the word 'five,' instead thereof."

[This amendment lies over till the next annual session, under the provisions of the Constitution.]

ODD FELLOWS' MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE.

Resolved, That the M. W. Grand Master be requested to appoint a special committee of five members of this Grand Lodge to prepare and report at the next regular annual communication, a more perfect plan than we now have, for carrying into effect the objects of the Odd Fellows' Mutual Life Insurance Association. Adopted.

STILL ANOTHER AMENDMENT.

The Legislative Committee submitted an amendment to the Constitution of subordinates, which lies over till the next annual session.

AN APPEAL DISMISSED.

In the matter of the appeal from a member of Buena Vista Lodge No. 24, in a case where the Lodge had expelled a member for bad conduct, the action of the Lodge was sustained and the appeal dismissed.

APPROPRIATIONS.

On recommendation of the Finance Committee, the M. W. G. Master was authorized to draw on the Treasurer for $600 for expenses of visiting subordinate Lodges; repealed the resolution of last year granting per diem and mileage to D. D. G. M.s; and allowed $20 to A. J. Marshall for services as janitor.

The Grand Secretary was authorized to print 600 copies of the Grand Lodge proceedings, and to forward to each Representative and each Lodge a copy.

VOTE OF THANKS.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the O. S. N. Co., the P. T. Co., the O. & C. R. R. Co., and the California Stage Company, for favors to officers and members of this Grand Lodge.

PLACE OF NEXT MEETING.

Salem was elected as the place of holding the next Grand Lodge.

A resolution was adopted requiring subordinate Lodges to pay the traveling expenses of D. D. G. M s visiting them.

The Grand Lodge then took a recess till after the meeting of Hassalo Lodge.

THE CLOSE

After the closing of Hassalo Lodge, the Grand Lodge again convened, and closed the business of the annual communication, and adjourned to the next annual meeting.

THE THREE DYSPEPTICS.—Here is an extract from a letter received by Messrs. Drake & Co. Nov. 2, 1869: "Three friends met one day in the latter part of last September in the rotunda of the Astor House. Your correspondent was one of the three. We were all suffering from the 'national disease'—indigestion; and all agreed on one point, viz: that nothing agreed with us. We discussed medicines. One had tried blue pills, another extract of dandelion, another almost every variety of purgatives. In fact we had made apothecaries' shops of our insides; but nothing had done us any good. I said I wondered if your PLANTATION BITTERS would help us any. After some talk we concluded to try it, and meet again at that same place that day month, to compare notes. We did so. It was a jovial meeting, I can tell you. We scarcely knew one another. Each had gained flesh; each reported a good appetite, sound sleep, an easy stomach and a regular habit of body. The change was marvellous. It was agreed to report the facts to you, and I was appointed to make this communication. You can publish it if you choose, and refer all skeptics for particulars to AMUSEMENTS.

THE SKATING RINK.—An immense crowd may be expected to-night at this favorite resort. There is to be a band of music in the hall. The floor is so roomy that the amusement is far more attractive than it used to be in the old rink.

ASTONISHING DURABILITY OF LEFFEL'S DOUBLE TURBINE WHEEL.—The following is from the Statesman of the 18th: We were informed yesterday that the "Turbine Wheel," which has, for the past five years, been in use at the Woolen Factory, had been taken out, and could be inspected. We took a look at it and ascertained the following facts: The wheel is only four feet in diameter, and in this mill is only under seventeen foot head, and is the only motive power that drives all the machinery of that large establishment. It was set up in 1866 by Mr. A. Myers, and is one of the largest wheels first sold by him in the State. Since the wheel has been put in, it has been in operation almost constantly, only stopping at short intervals to repair other parts of the machinery. The step of the wheel, most likely to wear out first, and in other wheels does, is apparently, in this one, not worn to the breadth of a hair. This wheel, if used as it has been, will last for years to come. The managers of the woolen factory endorse, unanimously, the "Turbine Wheel," and their endorsement is given after a thorough trial, and we are told that all manufacturers who have used it are ready to bear the same testimony.

Labor and Capital.

[From the N. Y. Shipping List]

Political economists have for ages attempted to solve the problem of the relation between the two forces of civilization—labor and capital—but while their theories are plausible, their suggestions are mainly impracticable. The various combinations throughout the country under the name of Trade-unions, which have been arrayed against capital, are certain to fail of any permanent results, not because capital oppose them, but, for the simple reason that they are unjust and arbitrary. One of the most obnoxious bills passed by [illegible] State Legislature during the recent session, ostensibly to protect the interests of workingmen, was the one adopted regarding apprentices—limiting the number to be employed and prescribing certain harsh terms for governing the relations between the employer and employee. This attempt to sustain wages by practically suppressing skilled labor is not only visionary, but entirely indefensible. If enforced, it will drive the manufacturers to seek labor elsewhere, and enable other States and other nations to supply the [illegible]. Any combination of men which thus proposes to degrade labor, will not, in this country, be successful. Intriguing politicians may flatter the men who request such a movement, and there will not be lacking demagogues who will accept the positions of emolument which political influence may thus secure for them, but the workingman will not in the end better his position or increase his wages by the inauguration of so pernicious a scheme.

In regard to strikes, the Trade-unions of England have set their brethren on this side of the Atlantic a good example. We gather from an English exchange that the trades union conference in London, representing no less than 700,000 men, members of the various trade-unions all over the country, has solemnly resolved that, for the future, resort shall in no case or place be had to a strike, but that all disputes shall be referred, as they arise, to joint delegations of employers and employed presided over by an umpire. Strikes rarely accomplish any permanent good. As capital can wait and labor cannot, the former has the advantage in the long run. Co-operative labor associations, then, would seem to afford the best remedy for the oft-recurring difficulties between labor and capital, and the workingmen will exhibit true wisdom when they turn their minds toward the consideration of the benefits to be derived from such a system. There is no reason why the workingmen should pay capital a large percentage when they can capitalize labor and reap what they sow for themselves. It is an experiment worth trying and we have faith that in this country, which is distinguished for the power it has shown wherever organized minds are required, that the results of co-operation will be gratifying to all who take an interest in the elevation of labor.

A HINT TO GRUMBLERS.—"What a noisy world this is!" croaked an old frog as he squatted on the margin of the pool. do you hear those geese, how they scream and hiss? What do they do it for?"

"Oh, just to amuse themselves," answered a little field mouse.

"Presently we shall have the owls hooting; what is that for?"

"It's the music they like the best," replied the mouse.

"And those grasshoppers, they can't go home without grinding and chirping; why do they do that?"

"Oh, they're so happy they can't help it," said the mouse.

"You find excuses for all; I believe you don't understand music, so you like the hideous noises."

"Well, friend, to be honest with you," said the mouse, "I don't greatly admire any of them, but they are all sweet in my ears, compared with the constant croaking of a frog."

A Berlin letter of April states that it is a mistake to suppose that the idea of "the empire" is accepted calmly or quietly by the Germans outside of Prussia. In Dresden the Saxons are quite as loud as ever in their denunciations of the Prussians, and persist in their old custom of buying no articles of Berlin manufacture. They also boastingly aver that without the aid of the Saxon troops the late victories over France would not have been won, and they deem it lese majestes on the part of King John of Saxony to report himself to the Emperor William at Berlin, when the Emperor should have come to Dresden to report himself to King John. Pretty much the same feeling of animosity to Prussia prevails in Munich, the capital of Bavaria. "German unity" is evident.

The [illegible] tale of true love long baffled, at last triumphant, comes from Cincinnati. The young lovers, torn apart by parental hatred, became insane, and were severally confined in lunatic asylums, one at Columbus, the other at Longview. The former institution was burned and the young man transferred to the other, where by chance the lovers one day met and flew to each other's arms. The parents' hearts melted, the long withheld consent was given, reason resumed her throne, and now the most "heavenly" couple in the State are the long-sundered, chance-united, ex-maniac lovers.

A writer in the Richmond Enquirer the other day tried to quote "Labitur et labetur in omne volubilis aevum." The compositor made it "Labiter et lobsters in omne robillious doun." The editor ran home for his shot gun, but when he returned the printer had fled.
